

Festival of Childhood

A whole day filled with music, laughter and color as children and families visit community booths and take part in art activities.

